Creation Safaris

Bob Farwell and Tom Willis were joined by over sixty people on the KU Natural History Museum Safari. Bob led a couple of great fossil hunts and one group through the fossil and evolution sales pitch floor, while Tom took the other through the floors exhibiting real animals and real history, but occasionally telling unreal stories about them.

One fascinating thing we discussed was that all Natural History Museums devote much space to current animals and plants, some to recent history (like Indian wars). Then they jump back about 30 million years. The Utah Museum is a classic. They display an excellent photograph of Butch Cassidy, the Sundance Kid and their gang in three piece suits. They said "It is believed" they lived for a while in the "Hole in the Wall Cave" a few miles from the museum. These events took place only about a hundred years ago, newspapers abounded and relatives of some witnesses are still alive, yet they were not certain what happened. But, in the next room, they were absolutely certain which rock badger gave birth to a horse 50 million years ago, with no evidence whatsoever. In the immortal words of Mark Twain: "There is something fascinating about science. One gets such wholesale returns of conjecture out of such a trifling investment of fact." (Life on the Mississippi, Mark Twain, New York, Harper & Brothers, 1874)

Seminars

Tom Willis just completed a six-week series at Heatland Community Church (aided in the last one when he was under the weather by Glenn Kailer). The Lord willing CSA will begin an 8-week series Sunday evenings, at Rockwood Baptist, Independence, Mo. on September 29. Contact the church office for more information: (816) 252-6155. There have been many more activities than reported here.

Audio/Video Tape of the Month:

Is Evolution Science - The Origin of Kinds

by: Tom Willis

Review of the "Nine Great Proofs of Evolution" contrasting them with real science. Are you familiar with the Proof from Homology, Ranking, Fossil Record, Embryonic Recapitulation, Vestigial Organs, Change, Adaptation, Natural Selection and Imaginative Evidence Production?

Audio Tape: $5.00 - Video: $13.00 (Includes postage)

Book of the Month:

Noah's Ark: A Feasibility Study

by: John Woodmorappe

Also featured last month, this book merits another special. Woodmorappe is one of the most detailed researchers I know (his work contains 74 pages of references). Yet when these books first arrived our receptionist grabbed one and devoured it. She said she "found it very interesting." Not intended for children, but, except for the section on the genetics of the created kinds, most of the concepts discussed can be understood by children. 298 pgs, soft cover.

Regular Price: $22.00 plus postage.

Special: Sept/Oct 1996 Price: $20.00 (includes postage)

"The World of Living Fossils"

A Video by: John Mackay

A central tenant of "evolution theory" is extinction of unfit species. Another is "Evolution is just change and change is everywhere... evolution is a fact." But, there are many creatures buried in strata supposedly many millions of years old, that are virtually identical to living creatures, thus refuting both the doctrines of extinction and of universal change! How is it that some creatures have survived for 10's and hundreds of millions of years with no change, while monkeys supposedly climbed down from trees and began designing computers and airplanes in only three million? Could it be that neither the millions nor the change really exist?

Biblical Naturalism:

A Time For Paradigm Change

A Video from the International Conference on Creation

by: Robert Harsh, M.S.

Robert Harsh is president of the Pittsburgh, Pa. Creation Science Fellowship. and long one of its leaders. He has some interesting and useful thoughts on the nature and limitations of science and the way that popular science is guided by paradigms, i.e., a basic view or model of reality which is used as a set of axioms or assumptions from and within which data are evaluated. Not really a technical presentation, it is a thought provoking one.

CSA meetings are free, entertaining, educational.

Truth or Consequences...

X-Rays, N-Rays and Creation

by: Calvin Myers, Ph.D.

Why do so many scientists reject creation? We know that the natural man cannot receive the things of God, but are there other reasons rational people reject what many of us regard as obvious? Cal will present some historical anecdotes and some examples from his own specialty, radiation biophysics, to illustrate some of the ways scientists can miss... or avoid... the truth.

Archaeology and Creation Science

A Video from the International Conference on Creation

by: Judy A. Young

A very interesting survey of Biblical Young Earth Creation and its supposed problems with Geology, Archaeology, Carbon Dating, Continental Drift, Dendrochronology (Tree-Ring dating), the Ice Age(s), etc. With so many topics covered, this is necessarily a survey. Nevertheless, it is also a thorough attempt to put real time dates on major events in Biblical, Archaeological and Geologic history on a single comprehensive calendar. Can you relate the flood, the Ice Age, Egyptian Dynasties, major archaeological discoveries, the birth of major Biblical and non-Biblical personalities and the division of the continents? A very interesting effort.
