Old Earth, Evolution, Liberalism, Nazism Communism, and the Great Harlot The Spiritual & Logical Connections

by Tom Willis

The last six CSA News (starting July/Aug, 2006, through July-Aug 2007) contained articles on the Age of the Earth. All may be obtained at www.csama.org/CSA-NLTR.HTM. Last issue was devoted to The Christian Case for an Old Earth which, as I outlined, is widely proclaimed, but does not exist. I ended by agreeing to address other Christian Proofs of an Old Earth, but, they tend to be minority views, and I felt led to wrap-up this discussion with some thoughts on the Spiritual and End Times Implications of Old Earth and Evolutionist Religion.

One must have only a modest spiritual awareness to sense that there are great spiritual, and other, forces at work in the world today, and they do not bode well for mankind living a protracted and happy life for many more years. Some opening thoughts on the forces at work:

I know geneticists who feel that mutations, rather than producing wonderful new creatures, are systematically destroying every kind of animal on the planet, especially mammals and Man. Mankind is accumulating mutations at the rate of over a thousand per generation. Most are small, involving only a single nucleotide out of some 3 billion. But, because they are small, they have very little measurable effect on the adult creature, making it impossible for even the exaggerated power of "Natural Selection" to eliminate them. For all practical purposes, all mutations are harmful. Very few may appear to confer a minor benefit, it is always illusory, something promoted as proof of evolution, but unconvincing to anyone who actually deals with mutations.

While the genetic system of "higher animals" is very robust, and tends to correct many mutations and survive many more, it is obvious that the Genetic systems of creatures that have few offspring cannot long survive this incessant hammering. The system will break, some believe in less than 300 years! The health of the life forms on this planet is very much in jeopardy.

The spiritual condition of the entire human world is also in great jeopardy. Communism and Nazism, while "officially dead," are, in fact, both very much alive. Communists virtually control Russia again, and China is actually ruled by a government more like Nazism than Communism, in that it openly embraces aggressive capitalism within a totalitarian socialist state. South America, while seething with Communism, is still officially dominated by Romanist oligarchies.

"Liberalism" dominates Europe and North America. It is essentially a rejection of all things Christian, acceptance of all things socialist and most things pantheist, including pseudo-gods, and Earth and Human worship ("We are all god"). Liberalism can only be understood in the context of its base: "They hate you because they first hated me." Only that sentence by Jesus can explain modern Liberal thought. Why would such a large majority of unbelievers embrace socialism? Some, yes, but virtually all?

The explanation comes readily when it becomes clear that God is a capitalist. "Thou shall not steal" and the entire Bible embraces the notion of private property. The individual human is held accountable, by God, not by the state, for the way his property is used! The reason is obvious, the state is made up of men, not gods. They have no business taking people's possessions and giving them to others. That is the job of the owner, or of God. When men do it, the proper name is "theft." Theft by the state "for a good cause" may seem nice to some, but it is not a Christian concept. Thus, Liberals, who "first hated" Christ, also hate all He stood for, including property.

Now reflect on the Biblical treatment of The End... the consummation of all things, including the final destruction of Earth and all of its kingdoms and creations. The symptoms of the approach of these things include "wars and rumors of wars." At last count there were 22 wars on our planet (incidentally, all involving Muslims, which might tend to suggest that they, too, play at least some role in the consummation, though not the one they, at least pretend to, believe they will play).

Step back and reflect on the entire mess. Liberals will embrace anything, but Truth. Almost to a man, they embraced Communism. They loved Hitler until he attacked their favorite antichrist figure, Joseph Stalin and his Communist state. That enabled them to even more openly embrace Stalin, one of the greatest atheist butchers in modern times. They embraced Mao, another communist butcher, and Ho Chi Ming. The Liberal press, virtually to a man, embraced the Communist Tito as the "George Washington" of his country... and Fidel Castro in the same loving terms. And today, the liberal media, public schools and much of the left in the entire "Western World" are striving to embrace Islam, even while Islam is striving to kill them. Doesn't that puzzle you? They claim to hate "religion," especially one that “imposes rules on” them. Yet they embrace a religion with the most onerous set of rules on the planet, especially to a Liberal. A “scientific theory” is supposed to be one that proposes an explanation for natural phenomena. My theory for this phenomenon of Liberal embrace of the worst of all possible religions, is that, “they first hated me.” They hate Jesus Christ so much that they would rather provide, they hope, only token support for Islam, rather than admit that “Christianity may not be as bad as Islam.”

Meanwhile, much of the Christian world is preparing their people for membership in the Great Harlot. In countless MegaChurches, unity is promoted over doctrine, the opposite of what Jesus taught, who insisted that His followers be sanctified (set apart) by “thy Word, thy Word is Truth.” Membership in the leading megachurch movements is conditioned on “belief in Jesus,” but what you must believe about Him is not stated. Based on the requirements for membership in the Purpose Driven Church, perhaps the largest, and most profitable such movement, many Muslims, Atheists, Communists, Agnostics, and Hindus could become members because they “believe in Jesus.” They merely reject a few things about him.

Jesus taught, quite bluntly, that “No man can serve two masters.” “You cannot serve God and mammon (money).” The opening sentence in the Purpose Driven Church kickoff meeting that I attended was, “We need a building where the ladies of (the city) can take their daughters to ballet lessons.” Next, we learned that, to raise the money for this noble Christian purpose, we would engage in targeted ministry to the career minded young families in the large houses a few blocks away. People who suggested that there are other folks who need salvation were essentially ignored. The argument that “targeted ministry” as outlined in this movement is not a Biblical notion, was brushed aside by the claim that “the woman at the well was a targeted ministry.” Golly, and Jesus’ purpose was to finance the grandiose building plans He was dreaming about. The argument was advanced that the Psychological Testing proposed by the PDC was directly plagiarized from the most notorious antichrist spiritual nut-case in the last century, Carl Jung. The response was a sarcastic comment that “We don’t intend to follow Carl Jung, we prefer Freud.” The suggestion that “local PDC leaders are so committed to their new Master that they preach only sermons written by him,” resulted in white hot anger on the part of a man who cultivates the reputation of being very low-keyed.

Those who do not sign a written covenant (an antichrist act, in itself) to support the leaders, are not permitted to become members or to minister in any way. This, and the methods outlined above, tend to insure that serious discussion of the Purpose Driven Church never happens, and all who seek it are officially labeled “resister,” to be, won over (if possible), then shunned and, eventually, driven out. Christians in great numbers (millions, I am told) have left the PDC. Disbelief or Unchristian behavior never seems to be a reason. “Resisters” of PDC are the ones driven out.

Mammon, not Jesus is the new Master of many of the megachurch enterprises. Listen to what is said. Compare it with what Jesus said. You decide, who is their master, really? In my case, their human master is Rick Warren, and their spiritual master is Mammon. There is much more that needs to be said on the New Christianity. The Lord willing, I would like to write several books on some of the topics in this article, but, I must finish Version Two of the one I was truly called to produce first.

We must wrap up this section by pointing out that the seminary system, while never a biblical way to train leaders of the church, is made up largely of unbelievers who’s ideas and beliefs are virtually never tested on anyone but 18-year-olds, and never subject to critique by true elders of the true Church. As a result, most graduates of this corrupt system are not believers. While there are obvious exceptions, most believers in the pews are futilely seeking Christian leaders and congregations.

Cap it off with the fact that every student in the world has been brainwashed with the nonsense that “evolution is science, creation is religion.” This has the effect of corrupting the convictions of even those who do believe.

Where and how will it end? What will the consummation of all things be like? Here are some suggestions:

- ❖ Liberals will continue, globally, to bow and curtsy to Islam.
- ❖ Islam is an equal opportunity killer. They will continue to kill everybody, including liberals, who happen to be in their demented way, as they have done for 1400 years.
- ❖ The antichrist will achieve enough power to attack Israel to appease the Muslims and the Liberals.
- ❖ Nothing can appease Muslims. The only sure way they can “get to heaven” is by killing people... Any people. Islam will continue to inflict pain on the rest of the world until even the Liberals will be, at least for liberals, moderately quiet.
- ❖ Therefore, the antichrist will be forced to attack Muslims to consolidate his power.
- ❖ The Muslims may have non-Muslim allies, e.g., Communists.
- ❖ The “Roman Church,” was believed by nearly all of the reformers to be The Great Harlot. But, a few of the better, and less noisy, scholars, like Isaac Newton, stated emphatically that the Harlot would also contain many Protestants. The obvious core of the Protestant contingent in the Great Harlot will be the content-free, rock-and-roll, psychology based doctrine, ballet lesson, mega-churches like the PDC. The Great Harlot is prophesied to be “drunk with the blood of the saints,” but the Roman Church, which killed about 50 million Christians, usually accomplished her killings via officials of the state. Already the PDC is allied with the state, with Warren serving on the Council on Foreign Relations, a notorious world-government think tank. Thus, few in the PDC will actually kill Christians, they will merely expel them, as the Romanists did. The state will do most of the killing.

❖ Evolution played and continues to play a major role in reducing the Bible to I nice book of quaint stories, thus reinforcing the Romanist & PDC view of human determination of the meaning of Scripture. Though PDC does it a bit differently. Rick Warren, for example, cherry-picks the passage that says what he wants said from 15 books he says are “Bible Translations,” but his most bizarre doctrines are taken from “paraphrases” that are not even near to being “translations.”

❖ Rather than being “Sanctified by thy truth...” what is called church today is often sanctified by Mammon as offered by folks like Rick Warren, with doses of Carl Jung and ballet lessons. It is composed of those who can contribute the most money and direct traffic in the parking lot. Most in this church will support the antichrist, up to the day he destroys them.

What about the true Church? “And ye shall be hated of all men for my name’s sake: but he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.” Mark 13:13. Already, many are again meeting in homes. It will get worse. Only God knows when or how, or someone closer to Him than I.

Real Scientists Just Say NO!
 By Tom Willis

Help your family and friends understand Creation/Evolution in a way that they will never be deceived again! The book examines stereotypical evolutionary "reasoning" rather than dwelling on the latest "discoveries." There are many good books, but this one will greatly reduce the number you need to read. If you don't agree, return it in good condition for a refund.

133 large pages, soft cover: $15.50

Genetic Entropy
 & The Mystery of the Genome

Dr. John C. Sanford, Cornell, Univ, holder of many patents in genetic engineering, including the gene gun, has written a truly readable and powerful book demonstrating that the facts of mutations make evolution impossible. Mutations are destroying every species on Earth, very rapidly! They are improving nothing! This destroys evolution's primary story. Must read.

208 pages, soft cover, illustrated - $16.00

Evolution Exposed by Roger Patterson

Aiming at Junior High up, the author's strategy is interesting. He simply took three widely used biology books and put "Note-Its" on every evolution sales pitch page. He then wrote them all down, sorted and collated them under a manageable number of headings and then discussed and refuted them. He did a commendable job, coming up with a very usable book for Junior High and up.

The Origin of Life

Is There Any Theory of How It Happened?

By: Tom Willis

Virtually every High School Biology text I have seen (about 12) contains diagrams and discussion of the Miller-Urey Experiment as an "Origin of Life experiment," each essentially implying that it contributed greatly to the atheist theory that "Life just happened." What experiments have actually been performed and what theories advanced to rid of us the need for God to bring about life? What were the results? What do we actually know about the subject? What are the only logical conclusions from those experiments and theories?

Early Visitations to the Americas

By: Lynn Lemons

The Evolutionist paradigm is that man evolved over a few million years. About 9,000 years ago he finally evolved sufficient cognitive ability to navigate, build structures, etc. The Christian paradigm is that Man was created, did not exist 9,000 years ago, didn't evolve, and began with more intelligence than He has today. Man started with the ability, if not the technology, to do great things. For example, He did not, have to wait until he evolved from apes to be able to navigate.

Lynn will present evidence supporting the Christian view of early man from his ability to navigate and travel great distances, to places like the Americas.
