Creation - Evolution

Which is Science, Faith, Myth? Simple, But True, Answers - Part II

By Tom Willis

Last issue we introduced this topic. The National Academy of Science declares that science consists of "natural explanations of natural phenomena," which "explanations" are purportedly bolstered by observation, experiment, etc. To claim a science of origins (a meaningful explanation, supported by experiment and observation), one must, at least, explain Matter, Life and New Biological structures. We showed in Part I, that all attempts to create matter, life or new biological structures by experiments, or by observation, have failed miserably. Thus, evolution, rather than being empirical science, is a Category III Faith, one believed in spite of the evidence. Evolution's explanation (theory) of the origin of all three of these basic entities in the universe is an abject failure. If you do not have a sound theory for the origin of these, then you do not have a theory of origins.

In spite of this total failure to produce any scientific explanation of these entities, evolutionists loudly proclaim otherwise, and demand the exclusive right to teach in all institutions, especially socialist ones, that evolution explains all of these. In fact, evolution explains nothing, but certainly not Matter, Life or Biological Structures. Therefore, we claimed last issue, but did not demonstrate, that evolution is Mythology, not science.

How Do We Know Evolution is Mythology?

Suppose you are walking one night and observe, through a window, a man sawing a woman in two. As he saws, the woman's head and feet wiggle, then go limp, "blood" gushes from the saw cut, and you run to call the police. Then, the rehearsal over, the magician and the woman come from behind the curtain and take their bows. This is stage magic, not "black magic." The magician uses persuasion, deception, slight of hand, to make it appear to you that he can make the impossible happen, e.g., "I will saw the woman in two, then present her alive." Generally he admits that he is doing illusion, but this "stage magic" is the type of magic generally used to prove all Myths, including evolution.

Consider Egyptian Mythology. Pharaohs were purportedly descended from Horus (Osiris) who was the great-grandson of Ra (Re, Amun Re), the sun god. One proof (like most religions this one evolved immensely) was that annually the Pharaoh would have a happy reunion with his daddy, the sun. How was it proven? On just the right day, e.g., a solstice day, at just the right hour, Pharaoh walked down a tunnel and mounted a throne in front of many witnesses who watched him "burst into light" as he had a happy reunion with his ancestor, the sun. The magicians were the astronomer-priests, quite good scientists, who used science to build the temple and create the desired illusion. A bright child might observe that "we only saw light, we did not see a reunion of anything," but all the authorities agreed with the "reunion" theory, and "we put bright children to death." Most folks believed. (See, for example, <http://www.online-books.library.upenn.edu/women/edwards/pharaohs/pharaohs-8.html>). Like evolution, it was pure deception, with motives: RELIGIOUS AGENDA: Worship the Sun/King. POLITICAL AGENDA: Help keep the Pharaoh and his oligarchy in power. FINANCIAL AGENDA: Astronomer-Priests and Pharaoh were the richest, most powerful people in Egypt. Note the proof method is the same as stage magic, persuasion and deception, not real evidence. Egyptian myth was proven by (Stage) Magic!

In Roman Mythology, the widely known myth (it is even well documented in the Bible, Acts 19) was that Diana (Artemis) came to Ephesus directly from Heaven to reside in her temple. The proofs were: You could see the rock (meteorite) and all the authorities agreed the story about it was true. RELIGIOUS AGENDA: Worship a Rock. POLITICAL AGENDA: Ephesus was 'obviously a city favored by the gods.' FINANCIAL AGENDA: The Temple is regarded as the greatest "wonder of the ancient world" and drew millions of tourists. It produced a tidy fortune for silversmiths, pagan priests and shopkeepers (tourist trade). Roman mythology was proven by (Stage) Magic!

In Modern Scientific Mythology, we see an identical pattern. Today, in countless "Natural History Museums," schools, theaters, TV shows, etc. you will see rocks and fossils and read or hear the story that "this rock (or fossil) evolved into that one." But, like the Egyptian child above, you will never observe the evolution, you are expected to believe it (in school it is demanded that you believe it). But, of course, all the authorities agree the stories about the fossils & rocks are true.

RELIGIOUS AGENDA: Promote Atheism, Agnosticism, Pantheism and other New Age Religions, as well as Gnostic christian sects/denominations that teach that the Bible is allegorical, requiring "expert" interpretation. POLITICAL AGENDA: Establish and maintain political control of public institutions by the above religious and socialist groups (the latter are virtually all part of, and produced by, the above religions). FINANCIAL AGENDA: A tidy fortune for people who would otherwise have a difficult time earning a living (Museum directors, paleontologists, uniformitarian geologists, teachers, college professors, priests and pastors of the religious sects above).

The key here is, in all these religious myths, scientific proof is claimed, but does not exist. For evolution, as in Egypt and Rome, "evidence" exists. Meteorites, rocks, fossils and even experiments, exist in great numbers, but they do not depict the story told about them, any more than a solstice or meteorite demonstrated the truth of ancient myths. But all the authorities (college presidents, to grade-school teachers, politicians to news reporters) agree the story about them is true. Virtually all of these authorities are consummately ignorant of the subjects they pontificate about. And, if their very life depended on it, (which it truly does) not one of them could come close to proving the story was true. Yet, as commentators remark about Ancient Egypt, "and, which is yet more strange, their subjects appear to have believed in this amazing dogma." Nothing could be more amazing than believing that humans descended from pond scum... but millions believe, or pretend to believe, this "amazing dogma!"

Evolution, like other mythology, has not earned the right to be presented as anything but a historical joke in any institution other than a cabaret, or late-night-show. In fact, even the unbeliever, Mark Twain, made great sport of evolution:

Now, if I wanted to be one of those ponderous scientific people, and 'let on' to prove what had occurred in the remote past by what had occurred in a given time in the recent past, or what will occur in the far future by what has occurred in late years, what an opportunity is here! Geology never had such a chance, nor such exact data to argue from! Nor 'development of species,' either! Glacial epochs are great things, but they are vague--vague. Please observe:--

In the space of one hundred and seventy-six years the Lower Mississippi has shortened itself two hundred and forty-two miles. That is an average of a trifle over one mile and a third per year. Therefore, any calm person, who is not blind or idiotic, can see that in the Old Oolitic Silurian Period, just a million years ago next November, the Lower Mississippi River was upwards of one million three hundred thousand miles long, and stuck out over the Gulf of Mexico like a fishing-rod. And by the same token any person can see that seven hundred and forty-two years from now the Lower Mississippi will be only a mile and three-quarters long, and Cairo and New Orleans will have joined their streets together, and be plodding comfortably along under a single mayor and a mutual board of aldermen. There is something fascinating about science. One gets such wholesale returns of conjecture out of such a trifling investment of fact. - Mark Twain, Life on the Mississippi

Nevertheless, as disbelievers in ancient myths were put to death, disbelievers in modern myths are punished equally drastically, depending on the extent of the power of the authorities in the various countries. In the "East," and, for 50 years, in Russia and Eastern Europe, disbelievers were imprisoned or executed. In the "Western Democracies" they are merely lied about, persecuted, and fired, or barred from promotion.

Is Creation Science?

If we allow our enemies to define the battleground, we can lose before we start. Virtually all enemies of God believe in a "historical" myth, such as evolution, which can never be tested in the present. Their real hypothesis is something like "1.5 billion years ago, life formed." They grant themselves a special pleading (a clear logical fallacy) which allows them to claim that it takes special conditions and millions of years to form life, then they wax eloquent on experiments that produce amino acids or other "organic compounds," but nothing remotely close to Life. Undaunted, they blithely claim "evolution is science." But, when we test their theories in the present, they always fail, e.g., "given these chemicals, at these temperatures... life will form," or "new biological structures will form."

If we state Creation as "6000 years ago, God created...", like evolution, the past cannot be tested. But, countless complex systems can be tested in the present, e.g., pocket combs, automobiles, space stations. Not one has ever formed by random processes. Now, they will scream, "You did not show God doing it." True, but, since none of these can be formed by "Nature," rational folks realize, as God said in Romans 1:20-25 only a fool would believe that something many orders of magnitude more complex should be expected to form in Nature. You see, it is proven millions of times a day that complex systems can be created, always by a creator who is transcendent to the object created, e.g., man creates pocket comb. Therefore, by deduction, we know that objects as complex as life were also created by a creator who is transcendent to life!

Men may persist in their belief that, millions of years ago, or on another planet, "Nature did it." They may even persist in calling their belief "science." But, God has made it plain that he does not believe any man truly believes that silly idea. (Romans 1:18-32) God's assessment is that they know God from the clear evidence we have discussed, and they know their ideas are lies. They pretend to believe such silly notions only because they refuse to honor Him as God.

Likewise, you, dear reader, can persist in such a pretend scheme. You will certainly have much company. Jesus put it this way, "Go in through the narrow gate, for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction, and many there are who go in through it." (Mat 7:13, MKJV) But, I fear you will need far more than much company to give comfort in the life that will surely come.

The science is obvious to all with eyes to see. The cost of rejecting the Truth is also plain to all who will bother to read, or listen. If I had not been there myself, it would be a complete mystery why anyone would choose anything other than the Truth. Since coming out of such foolishness, I can understand fully the statement: "Professing themselves wise, they became fools." Not because they do not know of God, they do, but they "refuse to honor Him as God."

Real Scientists Just Say NO!

By Tom Willis

Help your family and friends understand Creation/Evolution in a way that they will never be deceived again! The book examines stereotypical evolutionary "reasoning" rather than dwelling on the latest "discoveries." There are many good books, but this one will greatly reduce the number you need to read. If you don't agree, return it in good condition for a refund.

Evolution Exposed by Roger Patterson

The author's strategy is excellent. He simply took three widely used biology textbooks and put "Note-Its" on every evolution sales pitch page. He then sorted and collated them under a manageable number of headings and then discussed and refuted them. He did a commendable job, coming up with a very readable and useful book. Junior High up.

Genetic Entropy

& The Mystery of the Genome

Dr. John C. Sanford, Cornell, Univ, holder of many patents in genetic engineering, including the gene gun, has written a truly readable and powerful book demonstrating that the facts of mutations make evolution impossible. Mutations are destroying every species on Earth, very rapidly! They are improving nothing! This destroys evolution's primary story. Must read.

Evidence the Earth Is At or Near the Center of Universe

By: Mark Matthews

Since Galileo, it has been popular, in the name of Science, to present the Earth as a Planet, a "Wandering Star," cruising around an obscure, moving solar system, in an obscure, moving galaxy, a mere unimportant pebble in a vast meaningless array of self-created objects. Is this view really "Science" or is it anti science religion? Six major lines of evidence will be presented, all from observed science, not vain speculation, all clearly pointing to the Earth not only as being at or near the center of the Cosmos, but also as a key focal point of the Cosmos itself. For no other planet in the Cosmos, could these same observations be made. To believe Earth is an accident, requires a real suspension of sanity, or promotion of ignorance.
